1. WHAT ARE COOKIES AND WHAT ARE THEY USED FOR?

A cookie is a small text file that is placed on your computer by the server of this website, the server of the web applications that you visit or by third-party servers that may or may not cooperate with this website. The cookie file contains a unique code that allows your browser to be recognised. They generally make the interaction between the website user and the website easier and faster. They help - on an IT technical level - in navigating between the different parts of a website for the user and are responsible for collecting different categories of data.

2. WHAT COOKIES ARE USED ON THIS WEBSITE?

- Essential cookies, which are necessary for the website to function. Without these cookies, the website simply (or by law required features, such as cookiebanner) does not work. Consequently, these cookies are set automatically from the moment you visit the website.
- Non-essential cookies, which will only be placed after you have given your express consent during your first visit to the website. You may not be able to use all of the features of this website if you reject certain categories of non-essential cookies.
  - Functional cookies, which track information about your choices and preferences on the website.
  - Analytical cookies, which collect information about the surfing behaviour of website users and the performance of the website. This allows the website (and its use) to be improved.
  - Marketing cookies, which also collect information about the surfing behaviour of website users. This is used to compile a user profile with a view to providing a more personalised service and/or advertising relevant to you.

3. WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT - ENABLING AND DISABLING COOKIES

You can withdraw your consent for all non-essential cookies at any time, through the cookiebot widget on every website page.

Below you will also find links with the relevant information for each browser to delete the cookies placed on your device according to your browser settings.

4. THIRD-PARTY WEBSITES

This website may contain links to third-party websites. These third parties may, through their website, place cookies on your computer. This Cookie Policy shall not apply to such cookies. The use of links to third party websites and consent to the placement of cookies therein is the responsibility of the user.

5. AMENDMENTS TO THIS COOKIE POLICY

VGA reserves the right to amend this Cookie Policy at any time, for example as a result of new tools on our website or to comply with legal, contractual and/or administrative provisions.
